Boys Going To Baseball School At Fenway Park

The Boosters' club received 46 tickets for the Red Sox-Braves spring baseball training school to be held at Fenway park Saturday at 9:45 a.m.

The committee tried to obtain enough tickets for all the Little League boys registered for tryouts but to no avail. Therefore the committee decided to invite the older (12 and 11 years) and draw the remainder from a hat from the 10, 9 and 8 year-olds.

It was felt that such an opportunity would be possible next year for those who were in the younger group. It is hoped that all parents will appreciate the situation confronting the committee.

The names selected are as follows:

George W. Connors, Robert W. Aggerty, Richard B. Smalley, Edward A. Emsley Jr., William Connors, Philip M. Colquhoun, R. Meyers, Kenneth J. Bissett, Donald H. Sorrie, Robert A. Shann, William J. Scanlon, Francis Higgins, William E. Dubocq, Jackweeney, Michael Costello, William J. Dalton.

Richard L. Leete, David E. Pearson, William J. Robertson, Roy A. Sharpe, Robert M. Shaughnessy, Bruce A. Meyers, Samuel J. Jackson, John J. Giovinco, Douglas Anderson, Dennis A. Barous, Stephen Black, John K. Butler Jr., George W. Desmet, William P. Dobie, Donald F. McBride, William F. McCullom, John F. Dolan, Ronald McKay, Thomas A. McKittrick, Robert L. Millay, Christopher Muller Jr., Alan P. Nowell, Frank O'Hara, Robert Ouellette, William F. Simeone Jr., David Simpson, Gus Walsh, Thomas L. Wilhelm and Glenn P. Williams.

Any boy whose name appears on this list and is unable to go should call Charles O. McCullom by Friday.

And the parking, what's more
It took us an hour to get to the store.

To get to the clerks.

Do you have a size 20?
I'm sorry, I want blue.
Don't shove, lady, let this man through.

Assembly

A combined assembly was held Thursday morning with the students of Punchard and Junior High school in attendance.

Salom Rizk, author and lecturer, completely captivated his audience with his combined sincerity and humor in a lecture taken from his book "Syrian Yankee". His title was "It Pays to be Immigrant". The applause he received showed that this was one of the most interesting assemblies the schools have had in a long time.

After his talk Mr. Rizk presented the school library with a copy of the book.

Notes

The Corruption Issue

Despite the rifts at Washington it does not seem possible that the current corruption issue will be allowed to sink into lethargy. Too much has been exposed and too much more has been rumored or revealed in some part.

In many circles it is now believed that the senate itself will have to do most of the investigating if real results are to be obtained.

It is an extremely ticklish subject, particularly in an election year, but reporters have found the American people are shocked and angry, want a real housecleaning, and mean to have it.

There seems to be little question that there is a national revulsion not only against outright graft and dishonesty, but against influence-peddling dealings which are just within the borderline of legality.

If this public feeling persists it will have to be satisfied, much as some politicians may want to forget the whole mess.

Bureaucracy Costly

Bureaucracy is mighty costly — both in money, and in the influence it has on the economy of the nation.

The Office of Price Stabilization is a good illustration. It is costing the taxpayers about $65,316,000 a year. On January 1, there were more than 11,000 people on the payroll and no doubt the number has increased since.

All of this money and all of this labor is being expended for but one purpose — to interfere with the normal workings of the free market. This simply means that, in part, we are substituting a controlled economy for the established supply-and-demand economy.

A business man commented recently that he'd be getting along just fine if he could get the government off his payroll. — Wichita Democrat.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — April 1902

The first thunder and lightning storm of the season came Wednesday afternoon. Storm was one of heaviest in years. Roger's brook went on rampage, water spread over streets, uprooted trees and made mischief generally from Salem street to Shawsheen river.

The one who stole the pool balls from the Andover club rooms is expected to return the same by Tuesday or suffer the consequences.

Work on the new Haverhill — Andover street railway is being rushed along at a rate that is very encouraging.

The Ballardvale mills were shut down Thursday on account of high water.

Demonstration of cooking by gas largely attended in town hall by ladies of the town.

School committee votes that cooking and sewing be taught in the elementary schools next year and that a special teacher be engaged who can teach both.

Great effort being made to fight brown tail moths here. School children enlisted to find and destroy nests.

25 Years Ago — April 1927

Senior class guests of Punchard Alumni association at mid-year reunion. Society has 171 members. George Brown is president.

Local telephone operators planning for annual dance Apr. 27.

Annual musical night of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club held with large attendance in auditorium of the administration building.

Golf course at Andover Country club well patronized over the weekend despite snow that dampened the greens to some extent.

Twenty-two candidates for Punchard baseball team respond to the call of Coach Eugene V. Lovely. Capt. Luther Gulick, left field, only regular upon whom coach can depend, as three lettermen were among the missing. Some promising material among the newcomers.

Officers of grand lodge install officers of auxiliary to Clan Johnston in Fraternal hall after which catered supper was enjoyed.

10 Years Ago — April 1942

Three new marble altars at St. Augustine's church used for the first time Easter Sunday. Special dedicatory services expected to be held soon.

Abbot and Phillips academies to join next Saturday evening in presentation of "H.M.S. Pinafore."

Showing of film "Wings to Victory" to be made at George Washington hall Apr. 29 to assist in Russian war relief.

Several of our readers express their disapproval of dimming street lights as air raid signal. Those in outskirts of town where there are no street lights don't like idea.

NEW BOOKS

Perhaps the biggest news in news books at the library is the addition of the Moody's investment services.

New Fiction: Home To Tennessee, Crabb.

The setting of this historical novel is 1864, when John Hood led the Army of Tennessee in a costly campaign against Nashville.

The Inward Eye, Bacon.

A case of similar names brings perplexity, confusion and mounting fear to a New York mother. Well told tale of suspense.

Jasmine Street, Dodge.

While telling of the spiritual pilgrimage of Paul Carrick, the author tells the story of America's change in the last 50 years.

Son Of A Tinker, Walsh.

Maurice Walsh has a new collection of short stories which might even rival "Green Rushes" for charm.

Jefferson Selleck, Jonas.

Thomas Jefferson Selleck, small manufacturer of the Middle West, suddenly found himself shelved with a heart attack. While talking to himself (and a new tape recorder) we see the man's whole background take form. Unusual and good.

Births...

BOYNTON — A son, William Lindsay, Apr. 7 at the Lawrence General hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Boynton (Barbara Lindsay) of Westwind rd. This is the third son in the family.

BRAINERD — A son, Apr. 5, at the Lawrence General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brainerd (Florence Coppeta) of 29 Corbett rd.

CALDWELL — A daughter, Susan, Apr. 4, at the Lawrence General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caldwell (Helen Carmichael) of 37 High st.

EMMERT — A son, Apr. 3, at the Lawrence General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Emmert (E. Jean Strickland) 29 Memorial circle.

LUEDKE — A son, George Edward Jr., Apr. 2 at the Lawrence General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Luedke (Edythe MacDonald) of Porter rd.

TRAIL — Twin girls, Deborah and Pamela, Mar. 29, at the Massachusetts Memorial hospital, Boston, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trail of Harold Parker rd.

Finds Townsman Of 42 Years Ago

While going through the house at 27 Summer st., which he recently purchased and in which he now resides, John M. Murray came across several copies of the Andover Townsman for April, 1910.

Besides the various items of town activities at that time, what interested Mr. Murray as much as anything else was the excellent state of preservation that marked these 42-year-old papers.

The advertisements were especially intriguing when prices of 1910 were viewed in comparison with today's costs of food and clothing, and the illustrations of men's dachshunds, collars and suits, as well as ladies' shoes and other wearing apparel showed a wide variance of styles as compared with those of the present.

The house is one of the oldest in Andover. It was the old Varnum Lincoln house, part of the former Flint property which formerly occupied the site on which the Square & Compass club building stands, and had been occupied by the Lincoln family for 98 years.

Ruel Advanced In Rank In Korea

William C. Ruel of S. Main st., has recently been promoted in Korea to the rank of corporal. He is serving with the First Division, Marines, and at present is the company radio operator.

Cpl. Ruel attended the local schools and enlisted in the marine corps Feb. 27, 1951. He took his basic training at Parris Island, S.C., and advanced training at Camp Pendleton, Cal., and left for Korea Aug. 17, 1951. Cpl. Ruel is married to the former Anne Marie Furtado.

Book-Plate Display At P.A. Library

Thomas Jefferson had no book-plate, but he did use a secret cipher to identify his books. The Oliver Wendell Holmes library at Phillips academy has on display a volume from his library borrowed from the Library of Congress, and everyone interested in seeing this rare and historically precious book is invited to come see it and a collection of book-plates before Apr. 15.

The library has been fortunate in the past in acquiring a few books in which are the book-plates of individuals distinguished in letters and public affairs. It has, too, books from the library of Samuel Phillips, grandfather of the founder of the academy, and these have a delightful book-label dated 1707. Among the books of Eliphalet Pearson, first headmaster of the school, is one with the label, "Margaret Pearson, Andover".

The Boston Athenaeum has very generously lent the library the separate book-plates of John Adams, second president of the United States, Daniel Webster, Woodrow Wilson, the spurious plate of George Washington, ones of Nelson, George V and Queen Mary, some of the Colleges of Cambridge and Oxford universities, a 1700 Italian plate of the Medicis, and numerous other artistic and rare plates.

Some of the academy book-plates have been designed by Andover artists and are exhibited together with the work of other Andover and Phillips people. One case is devoted to the work of the late H. Winthrop Peirce, a former Andover resident.

Moody's Financial Books At Library

The Memorial Hall library is now making available to its patrons Moody's manuals of investments and Moody's investment surveys. The four manuals of investments to which the library subscribes cover these areas of the financial field: Banks and Finance; Industrials; Public Utilities and Railroads. Here is the type of information that can be found in each of the manuals:

Moody's Banks and Finance: Detailed financial and operating statistics of banks, insurance companies, investment trusts, finance and holding companies and real estate enterprises. There are financial statements, security descriptions, tabular breakdowns and details of investment trust portfolios. Annual is published in April.

Moody's Industrials: Statements of about 4,100 industrial companies giving history, subsidiaries, nature of business, officers and directors, detailed income accounts and balance sheets, security descriptions, dividend records, ten year stock and bond price range and Moody's Bond Ratings. Annual is published in July.

Moody's Public Utilities: Financial statements of the entire public utility field—electric power and light, natural gas, telephone and telegraph, etc. Also details on franchises, rate schedules and production and sales statistics. The annual is to be published in August.

Moody's Railroads: Descriptions and statistics of over 1,100 railroads, information on mileage, equipment, freight and passenger statistics, as well as comparative income accounts and balance sheets over a period of years and descriptions of stock and bond issues. Maps of prominent railroads are also included. Annual is published in September. Each annual will be available as published. There are twice-weekly supplementary news items and data for these.

Moody's Investment Surveys are weekly publications which discuss current trends in the stock and bond markets and also analyze individual stocks and bonds. The library subscribes to Moody's Stock Survey and Moody's Bond Survey.

These investors' aids are all shelved in the reference room off the main reading room of the library.

4993 Get Negative Reports In Andover X-Ray Survey

Negative X-ray reports bearing the news that "the result of your chest X-ray is satisfactory" have been sent out by the Essex County Health association to 4,993 individuals or 96 per cent of the 5,184 counted as X-rayed in the Andover X-ray survey.

The final retake clinic took place Apr. 7. A series of these clinics was held by the state department of public health in co-operation with the Andover board of health, local industries and school authorities for the 191 people whose X-rays were not satisfactory. In these cases, the picture might not have been a good one or else it showed an abnormality in the chest. This condition would not have to be tuberculosis since a number of other conditions may be found by chest X-rays.

Almost all the 191 have reported to the retake clinics. Another opportunity for a large X-ray will be given those who were unable to keep their retake appointments.

Red Cross Plans For Bloodmobile

Andover Red Cross chapter is again making plans for the collection of blood in order to meet the vast program which supplies free blood for the armed services and for the sick of the community as it is requested.

The bloodmobile will be at the South church from 1 to 7 p.m., Friday, May 2. Registration of 210 prospective donors is needed to get a quota of 150 usable pints. Donors must be between the ages of 18 to 59 who have not had jaundice. Those under 21 years of age must have a permission form signed by their parents.

Because various conflicting activities and inclement weather interfered with the boy scout canvass for donors scheduled for last Saturday, their plan has been extended to include the week ending on Apr. 19. Those who may be approached by the boys in this community effort are urged to give them every encouragement possible.
